Fill-in-the-Blank Travel Stories

Ask your child for each word, write it on the line, then read the story aloud.

youngwildscreenfree.com

The Very Wobbly Airplane

Today we got on a big airplane going to _____ (a place). The pilot was a _____ (an animal) wearing a _____ (a color) hat.

When the plane took off, everybody said "_____ (a silly sound)!" Out the window I saw a cloud shaped like a _____ (a food).

The snack cart had _____ (a number) cookies and one _____ (something squishy). I gave it to my _____ (a family member).

When we landed, we all _____ (an action, like hop) off the plane and shouted “Hooray!”

Our Road Trip to Nowhere-in-Particular

We packed the car with snacks, a pillow and a _____ (an animal) named _____ (a funny name).

On the highway we passed a _____ (a color) truck full of _____ (a plural thing, like socks).

Every time we saw a cow, we had to _____ (an action) and say “_____ (a silly sound)!”

At the rest stop, we ate _____ (a food) sandwiches. Best. Trip. Ever.

The Day at the Beach

At the beach the sand felt _____ (a feeling word, like tickly) on my toes.

I built a sandcastle for a _____ (an animal) king who loved to eat _____ (a food).

A big wave went "_____ (a silly sound)!" and splashed my _____ (a body part).

We found _____ (a number) shells and one _____ (a color) _____ (a thing). We took it home to remember.

Packing the Magic Suitcase

Our suitcase was so big a _____ (an animal) could sleep inside it.

First I packed my _____ (a favorite toy), then _____ (a number) pairs of _____ (a color) socks.

Then my _____ (a family member) packed a _____ (something silly) "just in case."

When we zipped it up it went "_____ (a silly sound)!" and we were ready to go.